The objects of the Society are:—

(a.) To pledge loyalty of the members of this Association: To Jesus Christ, the Incarnate Word, the Saviour of Men, the Redeemer of Israel, the King of Kings, the Lord of Lords, and the only Ruler of Princes; to the Bible, as the ever-living written Word of God; to the Throne of the House of David, now officially established at St. James's or St. Jacob's, the capital of the British Commonwealth of Nations:

(b.) To teach and publish: That the Great Charter underlying the Throne and organization of the British Commonwealth of Nations consists of the Brith or Covenant entered into between El Shaddai (God Almighty) and Abraham and Sarah, and confirmed to Isaac and Jacob, to the House of Israel, and in certain particulars to the House of David. That the Brith or Covenant entered into primarily with Abraham the Brith-Ish (which being interpreted into English means the Covenant-Man) includes as later developed: The title to immense territories of land as an everlasting heritage; the organization and everlasting perpetuation of national life founded upon a secured civilization; immunity from destruction by enemies; the Brith-Anniah, or Covenant of the Deep or Rule of the Sea; the ordinances of Worship and Salvation; a national constitution not only immeasurably superior to any other code of laws, but absolutely perfect for such a world as this, and capable of universal application; the Virgin Birth and Redemptive Sacrifice of the Lord; the establishment of the Throne of David for ever; the return and reign of the King of Kings; the final triumph of God's purpose in Israel on this earth. That by principles of the Constitution given under the Brith or Covenant, human history has been directed and controlled to this day; and the divergence from it on the part of men and governments has been the direct cause of the confusion and suffering among the nations:

(c.) To acquire land and build, maintain, and operate buildings, plant, machinery, and equipment for the purpose of the Association, including halls, libraries, and residences and such other buildings as may be required for carrying out the purposes of the Association:

(d.) To establish, maintain, and operate printing-presses, and to print books, tracts, and other literature (newspapers) and such, and to build, establish, operate, and maintain contracts for and employ radio-stations, television, cinematograph, or any other form of publicity, propaganda, or any other method of proclaiming the teachings of this Association, and generally to carry on the business of printers, publishers, stationers, bookbinders, or any branch of such business:

(e.) To borrow money for the purposes of the Association, and to mortgage or pledge the property of the Association, both real and personal, as the Association shall see fit, and in respect thereof to grant and execute promissory notes, contracts, or other writing to secure payment of any money so borrowed as the Association shall see fit, subject in every case to the laws of the Province of British Columbia applying thereto:

(f.) To enter into affiliation with and to co-operate with any corporation, association, or society having objects similar to the objects of this Association, which it may desire to support or with which it may desire to affiliate or co-operate:

(g.) To adopt by-laws or regulations governing the admission of members and (or) branches into the Association, the termination of membership, the election of officers, the holding of meetings, and any other matters necessary for the conduct and pursuit of the objects and business of the association:

(h.) To promote the unity of all the British Israel associations, societies, branches, classes, and members in Canada, as nearly as possible upon a basis of voluntary organization and operation. The operations of the Society are to be chiefly carried on in the City of Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia, but the Association may extend its operations as provided in paragraph (i) hereof:

(i.) To promote the objects and to carry on the work of this Association in the Province of British Columbia and in any of the Provinces of the Dominion or in any countries of the world, subject to the laws of each Province or countries to which the operation of this Association shall extend.
